RONA announces an agreement to sell its commercial and professional market division to EMCO

On June 20th 2013, RONA issued an announcement that it is selling Noble to Talisker Plumbing Corporation, a subsidiary of EMCO Corporation. This transaction is subject to a number of usual conditions, including a review by the Competition Bureau. Closing should therefore take place in approximately three months. The company's intention is to grow and develop Noble as a distinct subsidiary, with a separate management structure. Until then, nothing changes and Noble is still part of RONA and will continue to service and support its customers by providing high quality service that Noble customers have come to expect.
